

Grant Program - Frequently Asked Questions

How much of the project cost will the Veolia Mulwaree Trust fund?

The grant program is a competitive process and the Veolia Mulwaree Trust will not fund 100% of the cost of any project. Each application is assessed on its individual merits and organisations which contribute to the project through their own fundraising efforts and/or through successfully obtaining funding from other sources will be highly regarded.

What is the average grant provided by the Veolia Mulwaree Trust?

In 2018/19 the average grant amount allocated was approximately $16,000. Most approved applications range between $3,000 and $25,000 approximately. Each project is considered on its individual merits.

What types of projects and organisations are likely to be successful?

It is recommended that prospective applicants view previous successful Veolia Mulwaree Trust grants published on this website as a guide to the organisations and projects which are likely to be successful.

How do we show in-kind contributions toward our project?

Any in-kind contributions from your or other organisations is taken into account in the assessment process. List all in-kind contributions in the relevant section of the application form.

What happens after I have submitted my application?

You will receive an email notification that your application has been successfully submitted which contains your application reference number. Applications are initially assessed for eligibility and eligible applications are considered by the Trust Board.

When will I know if my application is successful or not?

Generally the process can take up to four months. The applicant will receive notification of the Board's decision in writing from the Chairman.

Our application was unsuccessful, can we reapply?

Organisations which are unsuccessful may reapply in a future funding round providing the application is updated and current. Applications which have not been revised are unlikely to be reconsidered.

Who can I speak to about our application?

Prospective applicants may contact the Veolia Mulwaree Trust office to discuss their application prior to submission by phoning (02) 4822 2786.
