

VEOLIA TO PARTICIPATE WETEX IN DUBAI

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates – 14 April 2014: Veolia Environnement, the global leader in environmental services, has announced its participation in the 16th Water, Energy, Technology Exhibition (WETEX) being held on the 14th and 15th of April under the patronage of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai.

In this year's exhibition, VEOLIA will once again be showcase top-performing technical and environmental water, waste and energy management solutions.

Xavier Joseph, CEO, Gulf Countries, Veolia Environnement: "WETEX is unique because it tackles critical issues in energy conservation, water and electricity, including environmental protection and preservation, green building, added-value offering towards smartest cities including energy efficiency management, carbon reduction and resources optimization - issues all relevant to Veolia." "The UAE produces approximately 2.5 kg of waste per person per day, so our focus is to help the UAE become world-class in waste management and recycling and recovery of resources, which are prerequisites for future growth" added Joseph.

Co-located to WETEX, Veolia is also supporting the first edition of the World Green Economy Summit (WGES). WGES 2014, held under the theme "Global Partnerships, Sustainable Future" is the first green summit in the Middle East and North Africa region, bringing together World leaders, united in pursuing a sustainable future for humanity to forge global partnerships that accelerate the transition to a green economy.

WGES is an initiative of Dubai Water & Electricity Authority (DEWA) under the leadership of Dubai Supreme Council of Energy.

Visitors and participants may visit the VEOLIA stand at the French pavilion Booth: BQ5, Hall5.
