Paris, June 30 2014

Sale of Veolia's shares in Marius Pedersen Group is complete

Veolia announced the completion of the sale of its 65% stake in Marius Pedersen Group, for €240 million to Entreprenør Marius Pedersens Fond (Marius Pedersen Foundation).

This transaction will contribute to Veolia's debt reduction by the amount of the divestment in 2014. It is part of Veolia's development strategy and geographic refocusing in areas where the Group can bring higher value to its clients and stakeholders, as defined by Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Antoine Frérot at end 2011.

Marius Pedersen Foundation is already the owner of the remaining 35% of Marius Pedersen Group.
