Dubai Municipality awards AED 144 million Sewage Treatment Plant contract to Veolia

Dubai Municipality has awarded Veolia Water Solutions & Technologies (“VWST”), a subsidiary of Veolia, an AED 144 million contract (approximately EUR 35 million) for the extension of the Al Aweer Sewage Treatment Plant (STP).

As a part of its strategic plan 2015-2021, Dubai Municipality started to award Mega Infrastructures Projects based on the approved Drainage and Irrigation Master Plan to upgrade the existing STPs and to enhance the performance of the whole existing sewerage system, in order to be ready to accommodate the anticipated increase of sewage in the Emirate.

The Project DS 167/1 was one of those Mega Infrastructure Projects awarded to VWST for the extension of Al Aweer STP to treat 65,000 m³ per day in addition to the existing plant’s capacity. The contract will see VWST provide engineering, procurement and construction for the extension of the plant. This project will constitute the first stage of a complete upgrade plan of Al Aweer STP.

Emmanuel Gayan, Veolia Water Technologies Executive Vice-President for Africa, Middle East and Asia-Pacific, said: “We are delighted that Veolia has been awarded the contract to support the Al Aweer Sewage Treatment Plant. It highlights how Veolia is becoming a trusted partner of Dubai Municipality ahead of Dubai Expo 2020, where sustainability is a key priority.”
